

History Activity	Building Skills and Disciplinary Knowledge	Approaches to Developing Skills and Disciplinary Knowledge	Building Substantive Knowledge and Understanding	Approaches to Developing Substantive Knowledge and Understanding	Curricula Materials	Assessed through (T1 T2 T3) Chronological Understanding Historical Enquiry Knowledge and Interpretation
Historical enquiry Historical Knowledge	 Can ask and answer questions about the past by talking to an older person Can research about a famous event that happened somewhere else in the world Can use specific source, such as an information book Can spot old and new things on a picture Can research the life of a famous Briton using different resources Can investigate problems through an eye witness (why has the fire happened in London) Can explain why eye –witness accounts may vary Can explain how people used an object in the past Can answer questions using old photos/ artefact Can carry out a research about a famous person Can learn about famous people's lives from Britain and their impact on our world 	 Opportunities to research and analyse case studies Modelling by teacher Opportunities to review investigations against criteria Modelled analysis of maps Planned opportunities to investigate 	 immediate local area to include a contrasting locality Pupils will know the location and characteristics of significant human features and historical buildings in the United Kingdom Pupils will understand how History reflects a community/ culture through customs, dress, food, values Pupils will understand how History can tell us about cultures and communities relating to religion 		TERM2: The Great fire of London TERM3: Florence Nightingale Mary Seacole
Maths links	 Can explain how the local area was different in the past Can compare the sizes of different buildings (how close were the houses to each other during the fire, size of the houses) Can compare distances on the map (London on a map during the fire, London today) Can make a simple timeline Can sequence events, such as the Great Fire of London Can sequence the life of Florence Nightingale 	 different types of map, both in books and digitally Observational opportunities to be part of lessons where appropriate (Geography link: UK countries and their history) Plan museum trips and opportunities to investigate with a partner/group Plan for real experiences in centres of historical interest visit the place where the fire started and where it spread
SMSC	 Can work with others of different religious, ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds, according to given briefs in the Y2 history curriculum Can resolve conflicts and differing opinions should these arise Can reflect on choices Can investigate and offer views on ethical issues in topics studied Can show a willingness to explore and understand cultures from various historical eras Can investigate with a team, seeking knowledge of wider world, interviewing older people, learning about archaeologists, visiting museums and exhibitions and undertaking trips 							