SPECIAL DATES

Year 6's Blog!

Welcome to year 6's very first blog! We all had lovely summer holidays and are ready for our very important year ahead...

Amina's Holiday

My holiday was very fantastic - it was the best holiday ever. This is your very lucky day because I am going to tell you about it. I went to my country where I had so much fun; I truly hope you guys felt the same way about your break. My family and I went out frequently and travelled to the beach nearly every day. We also visited a welldesigned restaurant which had some delicious food such as spaghetti and nice mashed potatoes. When we had finished our delicious food, my family and I usually order some fruity milkshakes. This is what happened in my great holiday!

This week we have had some SATS-style assessments, which we were very nervous about. We did reading comprehension, reasoning, arithmetic and punctuation and grammar assessments. They were fine really...

Art

In art we explored Picasso-style paintings in order to try to make them independently. We sketched our own picture and we found out that just by playing with positioning we could make a unique piece of art. Also, in another art lesson, we all made a butterfly which we used as a background for writing about our favourite book. We hope our first blog lived up to your expectations! By Omar N and Amina

Year 5's Blog

In R.E we have been learning about miracles that Jesus took place in for example the feeding of the 5000. The story began with Jesus arriving in a boat which his disciples helped to put down safely and in front of 5000 people, then Jesus called the little boy to give all the food that they had and the little boy gave Jesus 5 loaves of bread and 2 fish and then divided them into 50 groups and shared it all between everyone and there were still #### leftovers.

Book corner

We designed posters of sayings people made about books and decorated them. We haven't finished, but we are going to finish it later on in the week. We designed our own bookmarks as well.

In SAPG we have been learning about punctuation and code breakers; we had to get the right punctuation!

Back to school

It is hard waking up early to go to school after a memorable holiday and having a lot of freedom and being able to play what we want and seeing our family members

Handwriting

In handwriting we listened and rewrote the story about a man who was far away in a desert and sat under a tree but this tree, wasn't an ordinary tree if you sat under it, your greatest wishes would come true. Now this man wished for food, water and a bed.

Holiday

On my holiday I went to some places in England like Devon and Cornwall I also visited some family I went to the park and played football with some friends. By Ramy and Dominik

Year 4's Blog

On Thursday we did a grammar and maths test. In science we have been learning about living things. We wrote a mind map. For example, A living thing needs water and food, all living things grow and need oxygen. Animals also need to get rid of other waste products and food you eat will turn into energy. We use energy when running and writing. The key words are M for movements, R for reproduction, S for sensitivity, N for nutrition, E for excretion, R for respiration, G for growth. In Ryan's holiday, he drew pictures of colourful flowers and eyes. In Aby's holiday she went to Dubai and went to a scary and fun waterpark. "When I went there it took me 6 hours to go there."

When we first came in to Y4 we felt nervous and anxious. Yesterday, we played a game that is called bingo and we also did lots of fun activities and it was amazing in Y4. By Aby and Ryan

HEAD TEACHER'S LETTER

Dear St Cuthbert children and parents,

We welcome you all back to a new academic year, with a very warm welcome to the many new children starting in our school this week. We wish you an inspiring and exciting learning journey in St Cuthbert School in coming months...

I would like to extend this welcome to our new teaching team as well - and especially to our new Y1 teacher, Miss McDermott; our new Y2 teacher, Miss Barker; and our new music teacher, Miss Bowe. We hope you will have a fantastic year- I am glad that I have already seen wide smiles this week!

Our St Cuthbert children seem to have come back to autumn term with a bounce, and yesterday afternoon, our Y3 class were patrolling the corridors with clipboards and pencils stopping any passing adult in their tracks for a serious interview: a healthy eating interview. No wonder our corridors seemed clear of adults when I stepped out an hour later! Well done Y3 children for taking your learning so seriously and thank you to our teaching team for such healthy eating life -styles...

Fortunately, judging from reading record journals, children's comments and parent responses, it seems that many of our children are already taking their new year of learning incredibly seriously. What a great start to our autumn term, and we thank our parent body in advance for the support they will give our school as we work together this coming year.

But before we can head into a full week of autumn term learning, we seem to have a weekend! I wish you a restful two days and look forward to seeing you back with us on Monday. Best wishes,

Gill Putterill and the St Cuthbert Teaching Team
