

Toys

In History this half term the children will be learning about toys from the past. They will comparing them to the toys that we have now.

For their project we would like them to look at toys which were used by their parents or grandparents and design and make one of their own. Please help your child write a short description to accompany their project as this will help them to confidently share it with the rest of the class.

