

A Contrasting Locality: Mexico, Peruvian Andes, Amazon Basin

Your task is to research and present a project on a contrasting locality:

Mexico, Peruvian Andes or the Amazon basin, with consideration to

- physical features
  - culture
  - trade
  - tourism
- people and settlement
- and any other aspects you may wish to consider

1. You should choose one of the above-mentioned localities and use these sub-headings above
2. You should present your project with a very high standard of presentation
3. There must be an information text (chronological report) accompanying the project presented in handwritten text. This should be two A4 pages in length and use of subheadings and quality writing is essential.
4. You may create a 3-d design model to accompany the written text
5. You must include references to your sources of information
6. Be creative

Example: Book reference

Livesey, A., & Willmott, H. P. (1994).
