	9:10 10:10 English- Planning a Zoo Leaflet Today we will be looking at a persuasive leaflet and unpacking the text type. We will then read a letter from Sir David Attenborough, where he suggests content for a leaflet on a Zoo, to entice people to visit. We will then respond persuasively to the letter, in order to help us plan for the leaflet.	English- Zoo Leaflet Part 1 Today we will be further analysing persuasive leaflets and how they create selling points to attract customers. We will then be completing certain sections of our own persuasive leaflet for a Zoo.	English- Planning a Persuasive Letter Ooooh! We have a new letter from Sir David Attenborough! Today he is sharing with us the location of the proposed Zoo, so we are going to discuss the advantages and disadvantages to building the zoo in this area. We will then plan a persuasive letter to that particular council regarding the building of the zoo.	World Book day Activities- See Brief.	English- Writing a Persuasive Letter Eeeeeeeek, we have got a lot of missed calls from Sir David Attenborough for missing our English lesson yesterday. We are going to talk more about how to write a formal persuasive letter, before independently completing a letter to persuade the council to build a zoo in this area.
	10:15 11:15 Maths- Algebra- Forming Equations Watch this tutorial: https://vimeo.com/502633670 In your Google Classroom there are two corresponding activities, one on fluency, and one on problem solving and reasoning. There are three 'sheets'- you know which you are to complete! Complete it on the Google Sheet or by hand and post me a photo.	Maths- Algebra- Solve one-step equations Watch this tutorial: https://vimeo.com/502634894 In your Google Classroom there are two corresponding activities, one on fluency, and one on problem solving and reasoning. Lunch

1:30 2:30	Google Meet commences at 1:30 History: The Role of Women in WW2 The lesson will begin with some discussion and learning around the role of women and the new jobs that they had during WW2. Then... YOU'RE HIRED!! You will get given a 'letter of employment' from one of four of the different major roles women had. You will get a brief, then will be required to research that role further. With this research, you will either be responding to a letter about your role or be writing a diary entry about it (differentiated).	1:40 - Music with Miss Nicholls	Google Meet commences at 1:30 RE- How does the Christian Festival of Easter offer hope? Mind Map first. Today's key question- How do Christians believe the Easter Story helps people to understand the meaning of forgiveness? We will begin by reading The Prodigal Son (Luke 15: 11-32) thinking particularly about the words rebellion, jealousy, repentance, redemption and forgiveness. We will then compare it with The Great Commission (Matthew 28: 16-18).	World Book day Activities- See Brief.	Google Meet commences at 1:30- Art MIND MAP- Textile and Graphic Art Design. After our mind map, we will be looking at "The Knights of the Round Table Summoned to the Quest by a Strange Damsel" designed by William Morris and Edward Burne Jones. We will ask and answer some questions about this art piece. We will then look at a series of images of textiles from varying cultures, times and mediums and makes notes about these (much like we did with our portraiture unit)
2:30 3:00		Work on SPANISH Activity- In Google Classroom.	Circle Time- Today we will be talking about the importance of SELF-LOVE. We have spoken about self-care and growth mindset, so this is an important component tied in with this. Activity: Draw a self-portrait and write ten achievements and qualities you are proud of this could be: learning to speak a different language, improving in a sport, learning your times tables, moving school and making new friends...		Mental Maths (15min)- Live with Miss Head.
